

Please STOP the corporate control of our media. Where is our independence of media? Buried?! A free market media is so nonexistent that our citizens believe it is still existent. It goes back to the old saying "you tell a lie so many times people will just assume it's true". I am just glad that Congress is more actively moving towards regulation. Progressive reform will be stronger and hopefully, GOD willing it will all change. Thank you for your time and well whatever.